FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Andy Metzger Appointed CEO of EQUUS, Canada’s Largest Member-Owned Utility.

(Innisfail, AB) – Effective July 1, with the retirement of current CEO Patricia Bourne, Andy will bring his considerable industry and professional expertise to the position of EQUUS CEO.

Andy’s appointment is the result of a national search that garnered applications from across Canada and the EQUUS Board of Directors is delighted that an internal candidate rose to the top. We are equally pleased, as an Alberta-based company and a co-operative, to be able to acknowledge and retain Alberta expertise.

No stranger to EQUUS, Andy has played an integral role over the last two years as a key member of the Executive Team and the company-wide Operations Team Leader. Prior to joining EQUUS he held senior positions in other Alberta-based companies and the combination of his strategic expertise and grass-roots knowledge of the electrical industry will be invaluable in the position of CEO.

Andy is well informed about EQUUS’ strategic plans, goals and objectives. He brings values-based leadership skills and a commitment to co-operative principles to the role and is well positioned to lead EQUUS into the future.

As Canada’s largest member-owned utility EQUUS is proud to be able to continue to provide rural Albertans with a competitive Alberta-based choice for their electricity distribution. Andy’s determination and dedication to EQUUS’ mandate will certainly contribute to, and support, our continued growth.

About EQUUS:

Powering rural Alberta for over 70 years, EQUUS is Canada’s largest member-owned utility. EQUUS provides innovative energy solutions and safe, reliable electricity distribution services to over 12,000 rural homes, businesses and farms in 26 municipal districts and counties.
