

Journeyman/woman Power Line Technician

Job Purpose

The Powerline Technician performs the construction, operation, maintenance, modification, and servicing of electrical distribution installations, including overhead, underground and distribution substations.

Communication and Leadership

- When required help the Construction Work Leader plan jobs and cover vacation time.
- Work with and help train apprentices
- Have good communication skills to be able to work in a team environment.
- Act as a Crew Lead when organizing a crew to restore power.

Duties

Construction, Operation and System Maintenance

- Change old framing of structures to today's construction standards
- Contact other utilities about construction in the vicinity of their equipment or property
- Maintain detailed list of all material used on the job for job costing purposes
- Help Construction Work Leader complete jobs to ensure maximum amount of work can be completed on outages
- Investigate trouble with the operation of distribution equipment and repair as required
- Test and replace damaged equipment or apparatus that cannot be repaired on-site
- Must participate in Corporate Safety Program, including but not limited to: completing safe work plans, completing log books, following work alone procedure, and following safe work practices and safe job procedures
- Must be available for on call rotation

Member and Third-Party Relations

- Contact members and electricians to advise them of electrical concerns on the member's service.
- Member service – exceeding member expectations in the areas of complaints and inquiries

Review and Approval of Work

This position reports to the Construction Crew Leader

Job Requirements and Qualifications

- Journeyman/woman Power Lineperson Certificate (Red Seal)
- Valid class 3 driver's license with a clean driver's abstract and a Q air endorsement
- First Aid and CPR Certification, WHIMIS
- Understanding of the requirements of the Electrical Utility Code pertinent to the field of power line construction

Journeyman/woman Power Line Technician

- Knowledge and experience in the operation of heavy equipment
- Skilled in the use and care of tools, equipment and materials of the trade
- Capable of performing field repairs
- Ability to successfully complete pre-employment testing of the physical requirements of the position

Education and Experience

- Previous experience in rural power distribution system operations an asset

Compensation

EQUS strives to attract and retain highly skilled talent and expertise vital to our organization's success. We offer competitive wages, a comprehensive benefits package, and excellent opportunities for development and growth.

Power up your career by joining the EQUS team!

Submit your application to HR@EQUS.CA

The Employee Recommended Workplace Award recognizes excellence in achieving a healthy, engaged and productive workforce. It is the only award of its kind that is based entirely on feedback from employees.

EQUS would like to thank you in advance for your resume. It will be kept on file for six months from the date it is submitted. EQUS REA LTD. (EQUS) collects only that personal information about job applicants that is needed to determine suitability for employment. The information will be used only for the purpose of evaluating that suitability. EQUS will not distribute your information to anyone else. After six months your application, and any personal information collected about you during the verification process, will be destroyed.