EQUUS shall make all reasonable efforts to provide electric distribution service according to these Terms and Conditions, but EQUUS does not guarantee against interruptions.

8.2 Interruption

Without liability of any kind to EQUUS, EQUUS shall have the right to disconnect or otherwise curtail, interrupt or reduce electric distribution service to the retailer (and the retailer's Customers) whenever EQUUS reasonably determines, or when EQUUS is directed by the system controller, that such a disconnection, curtailment, interruption or reduction is necessary to facilitate construction, installation, maintenance, repair, replacement or inspection of any of EQUUS' facilities; to maintain the safety and reliability of EQUUS' electric distribution system; or due to any other reason, including emergencies, forced outages, potential overloading of EQUUS' electric distribution system or Force Majeure.

8.3 Reasonable efforts

EQUUS shall use reasonable efforts to minimize any scheduled curtailment, interruption or reduction to the extent reasonably practicable under the circumstances, to provide the member with prior notification of any such curtailment, interruption or reduction to the extent reasonably practicable, and to resume electric distribution service as promptly as reasonably practicable.

EQUUS will complete an actual meter read at the time of the enrollment. Where this is not possible due to technical issues or outage, EQUUS will estimate a meter read. At the request of the retailer (or Customer), EQUUS shall obtain an actual off-cycle meter read and assess a charge to the retailer according to EQUUS' distribution tariff.
- c) EQUUS will accept a notice of de-enrollment of a Customer by a retailer for discontinuance of electric distribution service as required by the SSC and these Terms and Conditions.
- d) EQUUS will not be held liable for any disputes between the Customer and the retailer.
- e) Upon receipt of a valid notice of de-enrollment of electric distribution service from a retailer, EQUUS will process the transaction in accordance with the SSC.
- f) In accordance with the SSC, the retailer shall remain responsible for service to the Customer until the de-enrollment is processed by EQUUS.

9.2 Discontinuance by EQUUS

EQUUS may discontinue electric distribution service to the retailer and the retailer's Customers if any of the following occur:

- a) The retailer has lost its license under the provisions of the Consumer Protection Act, RSA 2000, c C-26.3;
- b) The retailer has failed to meet its obligations under these Terms and Conditions or the Retailer Service Agreement with EQUUS;
- c) The retailer has failed to meet its credit requirements pursuant to Appendix B; or
- d) On account of theft, fraud or tampering with metering equipment.

Notification of discontinuance will be made electronically to the retailer and by mail to the member. Upon discontinuance of electric distribution service pursuant to this provision, the provisions of the affected services may be assumed by another eligible retailer from which the Customer elects to obtain services.

ARTICLE 10 - SERVICE DISCONNECTS AND RECONNECT

10.1 Disconnection of service

10.1.1. Disconnection by EQUUS

- a) EQUUS has the right to disconnect electric service to the member in a number of circumstances, including evidence of safety violations, theft, fraud or tampering with metering equipment by the member. If a member requests EQUUS to disconnect service, EQUUS will refer the member to the retailer. The only exception is in the event that the member request is for safety reasons.
- b) If the disconnect is a result of a safety violation, EQUUS will reconnect the service when the safety problem is resolved and when the member has provided, or paid EQUUS' costs of providing, such devices or equipment as may be necessary to resolve such safety problem and to prevent such damage, interference or disturbance.

10.1.2 Disconnection at request of retailer

- a) The retailer has the right in certain circumstances to request that EQUUS disconnect service to a particular Customer, and EQUUS shall comply with that request, unless that action is inconsistent with EQUUS' Terms and Conditions of Electric Distribution Service.
- b) If a retailer requests EQUUS to disconnect a member for non-payment, a retailer shall de-enroll the site and provide updated member information to EQUUS.
- c) If a retailer requests EQUUS to disconnect service to a particular Customer for idle service, EQUUS reserves the right to charge the retailer the member's monthly idle service charges.
- d) EQUUS reserves the right to assess charges to the retailer to disconnect service to a member.

10.1.3 Reconnect service

Before reconnecting or restoring service to a particular member:

- a) The retailer must provide EQUUS with sufficient notice to reconnect service;
- b) EQUUS reserves the right to charge the retailer for each month of disconnection, if the service was previously on idle and is reconnected within 12 months of disconnection; and
- c) EQUUS reserves the right to assess a reconnection charge according to EQUUS' distribution tariff.

ARTICLE 11 - SECURITY REQUIREMENTS

11.1 Setting of security requirements

Retailers shall meet and maintain security requirements as EQUUS deems appropriate to ensure that the retailer is and remains of sufficient financial standing to meet its ongoing financial obligations under these Terms and Conditions. The security requirements are set out in detail in Appendix B.

ARTICLE 12 - METERING

12.1 Provision and ownership

The meters used by EQUS to assess the level of electric distribution service charges to the retailer will be the same meters used to provide member billing information to the retailer. EQUS will provide, install and seal all meters for each Point of Service of a Customer according to EQUS' Terms and Conditions of Electric Distribution Service. Interval recording meters shall be installed for a member who has a connected load exceeding the threshold defined under the SSC. Each meter remains the property of EQUS.

12.2 Meter reading

- a) Metered load will be based on meter readings made by EQUS via AMI, or on estimates for those billing periods when the meter is not read due to technical issues or outage. EQUS reserves the right to assess a charge to the retailer for non-scheduled meter readings, according to EQUS' distribution tariff.
- b) For small general service members whose load requirements are small, consistent, and can be accurately predicted, the billing demand (the demand expressed in kilovolt Amp (kVA), kiloWatt (kW), or other suitable unit, upon which billing to a member is based) may be determined, at the sole discretion of EQUS, by circuit breakers, or from the nameplate rating of the member's equipment rather than being metered.

12.3 Meter test and adjustments

- a) EQUS may inspect and test a meter at any reasonable time. At the request of a retailer, an on-site meter verification will be arranged.
- b) If a test determines that the meter is not accurate within the limits set by government standards, the retailer's bill will be adjusted accordingly. Where it is impossible to determine when the error commenced, it shall be deemed to have commenced three (3) months before the test or the date of the meter installation, whichever occurred later. EQUS shall not be liable to the retailer or member for any additional costs that are associated with such metering or meter reading errors.
- c) EQUS reserves the right to assess a charge to the retailer for a meter test, in circumstances where EQUS has not been responsible for any metering error, according to EQUS' distribution tariff.

ARTICLE 13 - LOAD SETTLEMENT

13.1 Request for additional settlement information

A retailer may request profiling and settlement information in addition to the information required pursuant to the SSC providing:

- a) The retailer provides a written request to EQUS outlining the purpose for the additional settlement information; and
- b) The additional settlement information applies only to the Customers of the retailer.

Upon satisfaction of the above requirements, EQUS will advise the retailer in a written proposal of the type of work, time of delivery and charges necessary to provide the additional settlement information to the retailer.

13.2 No liability for errors

EQUS shall not be responsible for any estimating errors and shall not be liable to the retailer for any costs that are associated with such estimating errors.

ARTICLE 14 - DEFAULT

14.1 Events of default

An event of default under these Terms and Conditions and the Retailer Service Agreement will occur if either EQUS or the retailer:

- a) Is the subject of a bankruptcy, insolvency or similar proceeding;
- b) Makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors;
- c) Applies for, seeks, consents to, or acquiesces in the appointment of a receiver, custodian, trustee, liquidator or similar official to manage all or a substantial portion of its assets; or
- d) Fails to pay the non-defaulting party when payment is due, or to satisfy any other material obligation under these Terms and Conditions or the Retailer Service Agreement including fulfilling the creditworthiness requirements according to these Terms and Conditions, and fails to remedy the failure or satisfy the obligation within ten (10) business days after receipt of written notice from the non-defaulting Party.

14.2 Rights upon default

In an event of default, the non-defaulting party shall be entitled to pursue any and all available legal and equitable remedies and terminate the Retailer Service Agreement without any liability or responsibility whatsoever, except for obligations arising prior to the date of termination. The non-defaulting party shall provide written notice to the defaulting party of its intention to terminate electric distribution service.

ARTICLE 15 - LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

15.1 Indemnity

- a) EQUS and the retailer will indemnify and hold harmless the other party and its directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives from and against any direct damages, injuries, losses and other liabilities claimed against the indemnitee, and all related costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) suffered or incurred by it in relation to any claims, cause of action, action, suit or proceeding by a third party which arises from damage to property or injury to or death of persons resulting from the indemnitor's failure to perform its obligations under these Terms and Conditions which failure is caused by the negligence or willful act of the indemnitor or any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or representatives acting within the scope of their authority or employment. The indemnity will be limited to an amount in proportion to the degree to which the indemnitor or its directors, officers, employees, agents or representatives acting within the scope of their authority or employment are at fault. For the purpose of this section, "willful act" means any act or omission which is an intentional tort or an intentional breach of any obligations under these Terms and Conditions.
- b) Except to the extent to which either party is required to indemnify the other party, neither party, nor its directors, officers, agents, employees, and representatives, will be liable to the other party for any damages, costs, expenses, injuries, losses, or liabilities suffered or incurred by the other party, its directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives howsoever and whenever caused, and each party, for itself and as agent for its directors, officers, agents, employees and representatives hereby forever release the other party, its directors, officers, agents, employees and representatives from any liability or obligation in respect thereof. For greater certainty, neither party shall be limited in a claim against the other for specific performance or other equitable relief in relation thereto, or direct damages only and related costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees), arising from a breach of these Terms and Conditions.

15.2 Consequential loss

Neither party will be liable to the other party, and EQUUS shall not be liable to the member with respect to matters for which retailer is acting as agent for the member, for any damage, cost, expense, injury loss or other liability of an indirect, special or consequential nature suffered by the other party or claimed by any third party against the other party which arises due to such party's failure to perform its obligations under these Terms and Conditions or for any other reason (including negligence on its part or on the part of any person for whose acts it is responsible), howsoever and whenever caused, and whether arising in contract, negligence or other tort liability, strict liability or otherwise; and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, damage, injury or loss of an indirect or consequential nature shall include loss of revenue, loss of profits, loss of production, loss of earnings, loss of contract, cost of purchased or replacement capacity and energy, cost of capital and loss of the use of any facilities or property owned, operated, leased or used by the other party.

ARTICLE 16 - FORCE MAJEURE

16.1 Force Majeure Relief

EQUUS or retailer, as the case may be, is relieved of its obligations hereunder, and shall not be liable for any failure to perform any term of these Terms and Conditions to the extent that and when such failure is due to, or is a consequence of, any event of Force Majeure.

16.2 Exclusions

Notwithstanding the definition of Force Majeure, lack of funds shall not be an event of Force Majeure.

16.3 Notice

The party claiming relief from liability under the provisions of this section shall promptly give the other party notice of the Force Majeure including full particulars thereof and shall promptly give the other party notice when the Force Majeure event ceases to prevent performance pursuant to these Terms and Conditions.

16.4 Obligation to remedy

The party claiming relief from liability under the provisions of this section shall promptly remedy the cause and effect of the Force Majeure insofar as it is reasonably able to do so.

ARTICLE 17 - DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17.1 Resolution by EQUUS and retailer

If any dispute between EQUUS and a retailer arises at any time in connection with these Terms and Conditions, EQUUS and the retailer acting reasonably and in good faith, shall use all reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute as soon as possible in an amicable manner. If the dispute cannot be otherwise resolved, the dispute will be resolved pursuant to the Arbitration Act, RSA 2000, c A-43. All performance required under these Terms and Conditions by EQUUS and the retailer and payments shall continue during the dispute resolution proceedings.

ARTICLE 18 - MISCELLANEOUS

18.1 Compliance with applicable legal authorities

EQUUS and the retailer are subject to, and shall comply with, all existing or future applicable federal, provincial and local laws, all existing or future orders or other actions of the System Controller or of governmental authorities having applicable jurisdiction.

18.2 No assignment

Neither EQUUS nor the retailer shall assign any of its rights or obligations under these Terms and Conditions or the Retailer Service Agreement without obtaining (a) any necessary regulatory approval(s); and (b) the prior written consent of the non-assigning party.

ARTICLE 19 - NOTICE

All notices, demands or requests required or permitted under these Terms and Conditions or a Retailer Service Agreement shall be in writing and shall be personally delivered, couriered or faxed to the addresses and the addressees set out in the Retailer Service Agreement. Notice received after the close of the business day shall be deemed received on the next Business Day.

APPENDIX A - COMPLIANCE TESTING PROTOCOL

PURPOSE

The purpose of compliance testing is to verify that the retailer is compliant with the data transfer standards as specified in the SSC and has the necessary technical environment to send, receive, and translate the standard transactions. The installation and configuration of hardware and software as well as the establishment of communications are the responsibility of the retailer.

COMPLIANCE TESTING & CERTIFICATION

All retailers must successfully perform all compliance tests at least twice. All files must contain three or more records.

Should a retailer fail any test three times, the retailer must wait one month or some other time period designated by EQUUS before retesting will be allowed. All requisite compliance tests must be performed successfully before EQUUS will provide certification for service to the retailer.

PREREQUISITES

Retailers must provide EQUUS at least two months prior to accepting enrollments, the retailer's identification number(s), business name, general mailing address and business phone number.

Retailers are required to install and configure VLTrader with the standard information exchange package defined in the SSC.

Retailers must obtain a properly authorized digital server certificate. The digital certificate will be used to validate the retailer's access to the VLTrader server.

APPENDIX B – SECURITY REQUIREMENTS

SECURITY REQUIREMENTS

EQUS requires financial security from all retailers. Financial security may be satisfied by demonstrating satisfactory credit worthiness, or a security deposit. A retailer will be deemed to have met the financial security requirements if:

- a) The retailer, affiliate or person who guarantees the financial obligation of the retailer in a manner acceptable to EQUS has at least an “BBB-” credit rating from the Canadian Bond Rating Service, Dun & Bradstreet, Moody’s, or an equivalent credit rating from a major reputable bond rating service satisfactory to EQUS; or
- b) The retailer provides, in a manner acceptable to EQUS, a security deposit in the form of a bank guarantee, irrevocable letter of credit, or cash deposits drawn on a Canadian chartered bank, trust association, credit union or other lending institution acceptable to EQUS in or for an amount equal to and not less than the projected value of that retailer's payments over a 45 day period under EQUS’ Distribution Tariff, as reasonably forecast by EQUS.

If a retailer meets the security requirement on the basis of its credit rating, the retailer must provide EQUS a copy of the rating company’s report providing the credit rating upon which the retailer relies. In the event a retailer has obtained more than one credit rating, the retailer must provide EQUS with the report indicating the lowest rating, and the security requirement shall be assessed on the basis of the lowest credit rating. Credit limits will be determined prescribed in the Distribution Tariff Regulation, Alta Reg 162/2003, as amended. Where a retailer’s monthly charges exceed its credit limit, a retailer shall provide a security deposit for the difference.

INITIAL SECURITY DEPOSIT REQUIREMENTS

The initial security deposit level will be estimated on anticipated load and the formula as follows:

$$ \text{ Initial Security Deposit Levels} = [\text{Sum of estimated loads of all members served by the retailer multiplied by the monthly charges (system access service & distribution access service charges) multiplied by 45 (45 days).}]$

MAINTAINING SECURITY DEPOSIT

- a) EQUS will ensure that for each retailer the expected financial obligations do not exceed the credit limit or security deposit provided by each retailer. If a retailer's financial obligations exceed the credit limit or the security deposit provided by the retailer to EQUS by an average of 10% or greater over the previous 90 day period, EQUS will have the right to request additional security. Such additional security will be due within 10 business days of EQUS’ request. If security is not presented within that time frame, EQUS reserves the right to suspend the provision of further electric distribution service to the retailer.
- b) EQUS requires retailers to report any downgrading of their corporate bond rating to EQUS within 2 business days of said rating revisions.
- c) If a retailer fails to pay any amount billed, EQUS will apply all or any portion of that retailer's security deposit to the unpaid amount. The retailer will then be required to replenish the security deposit as outlined above.

INTEREST ON SECURITY DEPOSIT

Retailer Costs

All costs associated with meeting and maintaining EQUS’ security requirements are the sole responsibility of the retailer.
